IN SEARCH OF AN ANSWER . . .

I went to the woods because I wished to live
deliberately, to front only the essential facts of life and see if I could not learn what it had to teach, and not, when I came to die,
discover that I had not lived.

And our little life is rounded with a sleep.

the death of one who is young, and this alone
proves that life is a good thing.

No man is an Iland, intire of itselfe;
Every man is a peece of the continent, a part

the bell tolls;
It tolls for thee.

DEDICATION

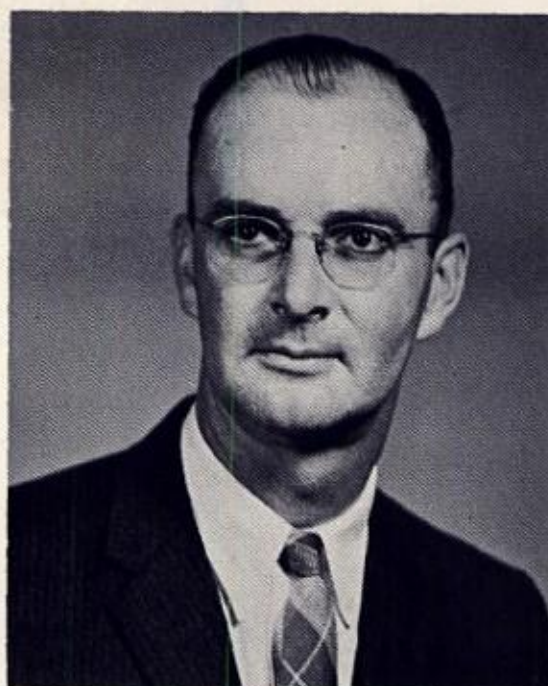

Of all the faculty, you particularly have endeared yourself to us by your sympathetic and good-natured approach to our problems, both personal and academic. You have frequently regaled us with tales of far-flung military exploits which have enlivened your lessons. Many a class discussion has assumed a more colorful aspect when viewed against a ski slope. Your friendliness prompts us to address this dedication to you informally. But the manner should not obscure the sincere affection and gratitude we feel for you—

PLEASANTVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

RONALD C. McCREARY, Principal

Office of the Principal

To the Class of 1961.

Greetings:

Yours is the first class whose members must meet the stiffened State requirements for high school graduates. Yours is the class whose members were full participants in Operation Upgrade at Pleasantville High School. You are living proof of a fact now established: Youth is ready and willing for the challenges and perplexities of the Sixties.

For the past five centuries the "sixties" have been crucial times when courageous leaders have pointed the way for other men to follow.

In 1565 Spanish explorers staked out the first city in North America. It still stands. A century or so later, tired of Roundheads and the Commonwealth, our cultural ancestors in England restored the Crown - and now it reigns. Americans a century later resented Taxation without Representation; farseeing leaders of that day rejected the principle and it stands rejected.

Differences within our national boundaries in the last century brought Americans into a conflict in the sixties; resolved, it established firmly the federal union, but left a score of problems unsolved.

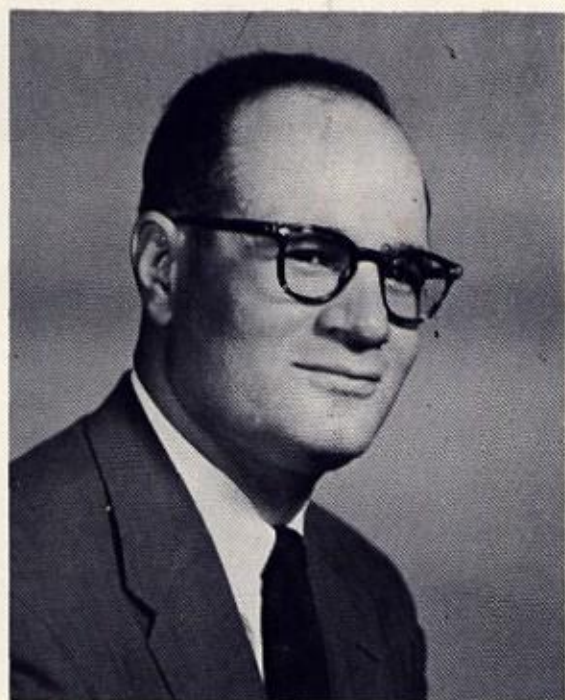

Before the sixties of the present century end, your judgment will be significant in continuing the search for peaceful solutions to these problems and the newer ones of international scope.

In your generation lie our hopes, perhaps our way of life. May you be equal to the challenges of the sixties in this century!

Sincerely,

Mr. Mac

IN MEMORIAM

ESTHER ELIZABETH PIERCE
September 26, 1902-June 10, 1960
Teacher of Mathematics
1943-1960

It may be so with us, that in the dark,
When we have done with Time and wander
Space,
Some meeting of the blind may strike a spark,
And to Death's empty mansion give a grace.
It may be, that the loosened soul may find
Some new delight of living without limbs,
Bodiless joy of Flesh-untrammelled mind,
Peace like a sky where starlike spirit swims.
It may be, that the million cells of sense,
Loosed from their seventy years' adhesion, pass
Each to some joy of changed experience,
Weight in the earth or glory in the grass;
It may be that we cease; we cannot tell.
Even if we cease life is a miracle.

CLASSES

e, the Class of 1961, have come a long way since we started school thirteen years ago. But every one of those years was more exciting than the one before it, for as we grew from "kindergarten babies" to high school seniors, we learned that most of the fun of growing up had been getting to know each other and learning to work together as a class. None of us can ever forget those first awkward days. For example:

Remember: Miss Bixby . . . tom-toms and triangles . . . Show and Tell . . . rest-hour mats . . . Dick, Jane, Spot, and Puff . . . Mrs. Tusler's big doll house . . . Think and Do books . . . Mrs. Furcht's multiplication tables . . . Miss Luedke's wedding—Roger was the first to kiss the bride! . . . Reynold's one-room school house . . . Billy Brundage's finger in the dyke . . . Band on the stage . . . Miss Lammers . . . "Feeding time at the zoo" . . . "Charlotte's Web" . . . the Hall Table . . . just one school bus . . . coat closets . . . the old St. Thomas School . . . the basement "dungeon" with the built-in swimming pool . . .

"Red rover, red rover, let Dickie come over!" . . . making trays for Mr. Pratt . . . penmanship class . . . jungle gym gangs . . . the ween Parade . . . deadwood and podham Lincoln's fights . . . class ship rings . . . the son's high heels . . . Curly's hair caught

"Funiculi, Funicula" . . . remedial readado chips . . . Philadelphia Kickball . . . Birthday Party" . . . hopscotch . . . snowmothers . . . "Hansel and Gretel" . . .

Yankees vs. the Rebels . . . Miss Mich-Miss Mangan and Mr. Dark . . . when fire . . . trips to the library . . . "Sticks and stones may break my bones" . . .

playing Hide and Seek on rainy days . . . Huckle-Buckle Beanstalk . . . the Roselle Avenue Carnival . . . popsicles

. . . "Guten Morgen, Fraulein Adler" . . . birthday parties . . . when Miss Burns became Mrs. Hart . . . chain letters . . . the Good Humor man . . . the Dawson Drag . . . Susie Washburn's pigtails . . . the Memorial Day Parade . . . Santa Claus . . . Brownie meetings . . . lunch hour games . . . Little League football . . . Cub Scouts . . . music class . . . Remember all that?

And now we were "all grown up" and very proud of it. We had graduated to bigger things, and to make it even more fun, there were brand new junior high schools in Pleasantville and Armonk. Don't you remember: Mrs. Jones' pearls . . . Mr. Engel . . . girls' shop and boys' home ec . . . Chair Committee . . . Mrs. Erda's Dance Club . . . skipping stairs . . . Holly's and Alan's parties . . . substitute teachers . . . Mrs. Hasselbauer's wallet collection . . . intramural soccer in the mud . . . Patience and Prudence . . .

Mr. Sonberg's gorgeous blush . . . how Mrs. Hyde spied for the 7² surprise party . . . Mrs. Oakley's coiffure . . . safety patrols (ticket-happy???) . . . Doc's green pants . . . the lunch-hour segregation of boys and girls . . . "Fez" Parker . . . pork chop passes . . . "Ah-hoo-yah, hoo-yah, hoo-yah-yah—Swiftly tumbling water" . . . Mr. Goodman's door slam . . . the 3:21 science club . . . "Keep-Away" . . . slumber party . . . Miss Spafford's Afri-leading try-outs . . . "Cute and Peppy" Cannibal King!! . . . 8¹ versus 8² . . . the "Off-Beats" . . . Dante's Inferno blankets . . . "Jump league pants and

To Blair

Why is it that the things we love the best
Are too soon gone? Why do they come — then go?
A glimpse of soaring geese in perfect flight,
The falling star that leaves an afterglow.

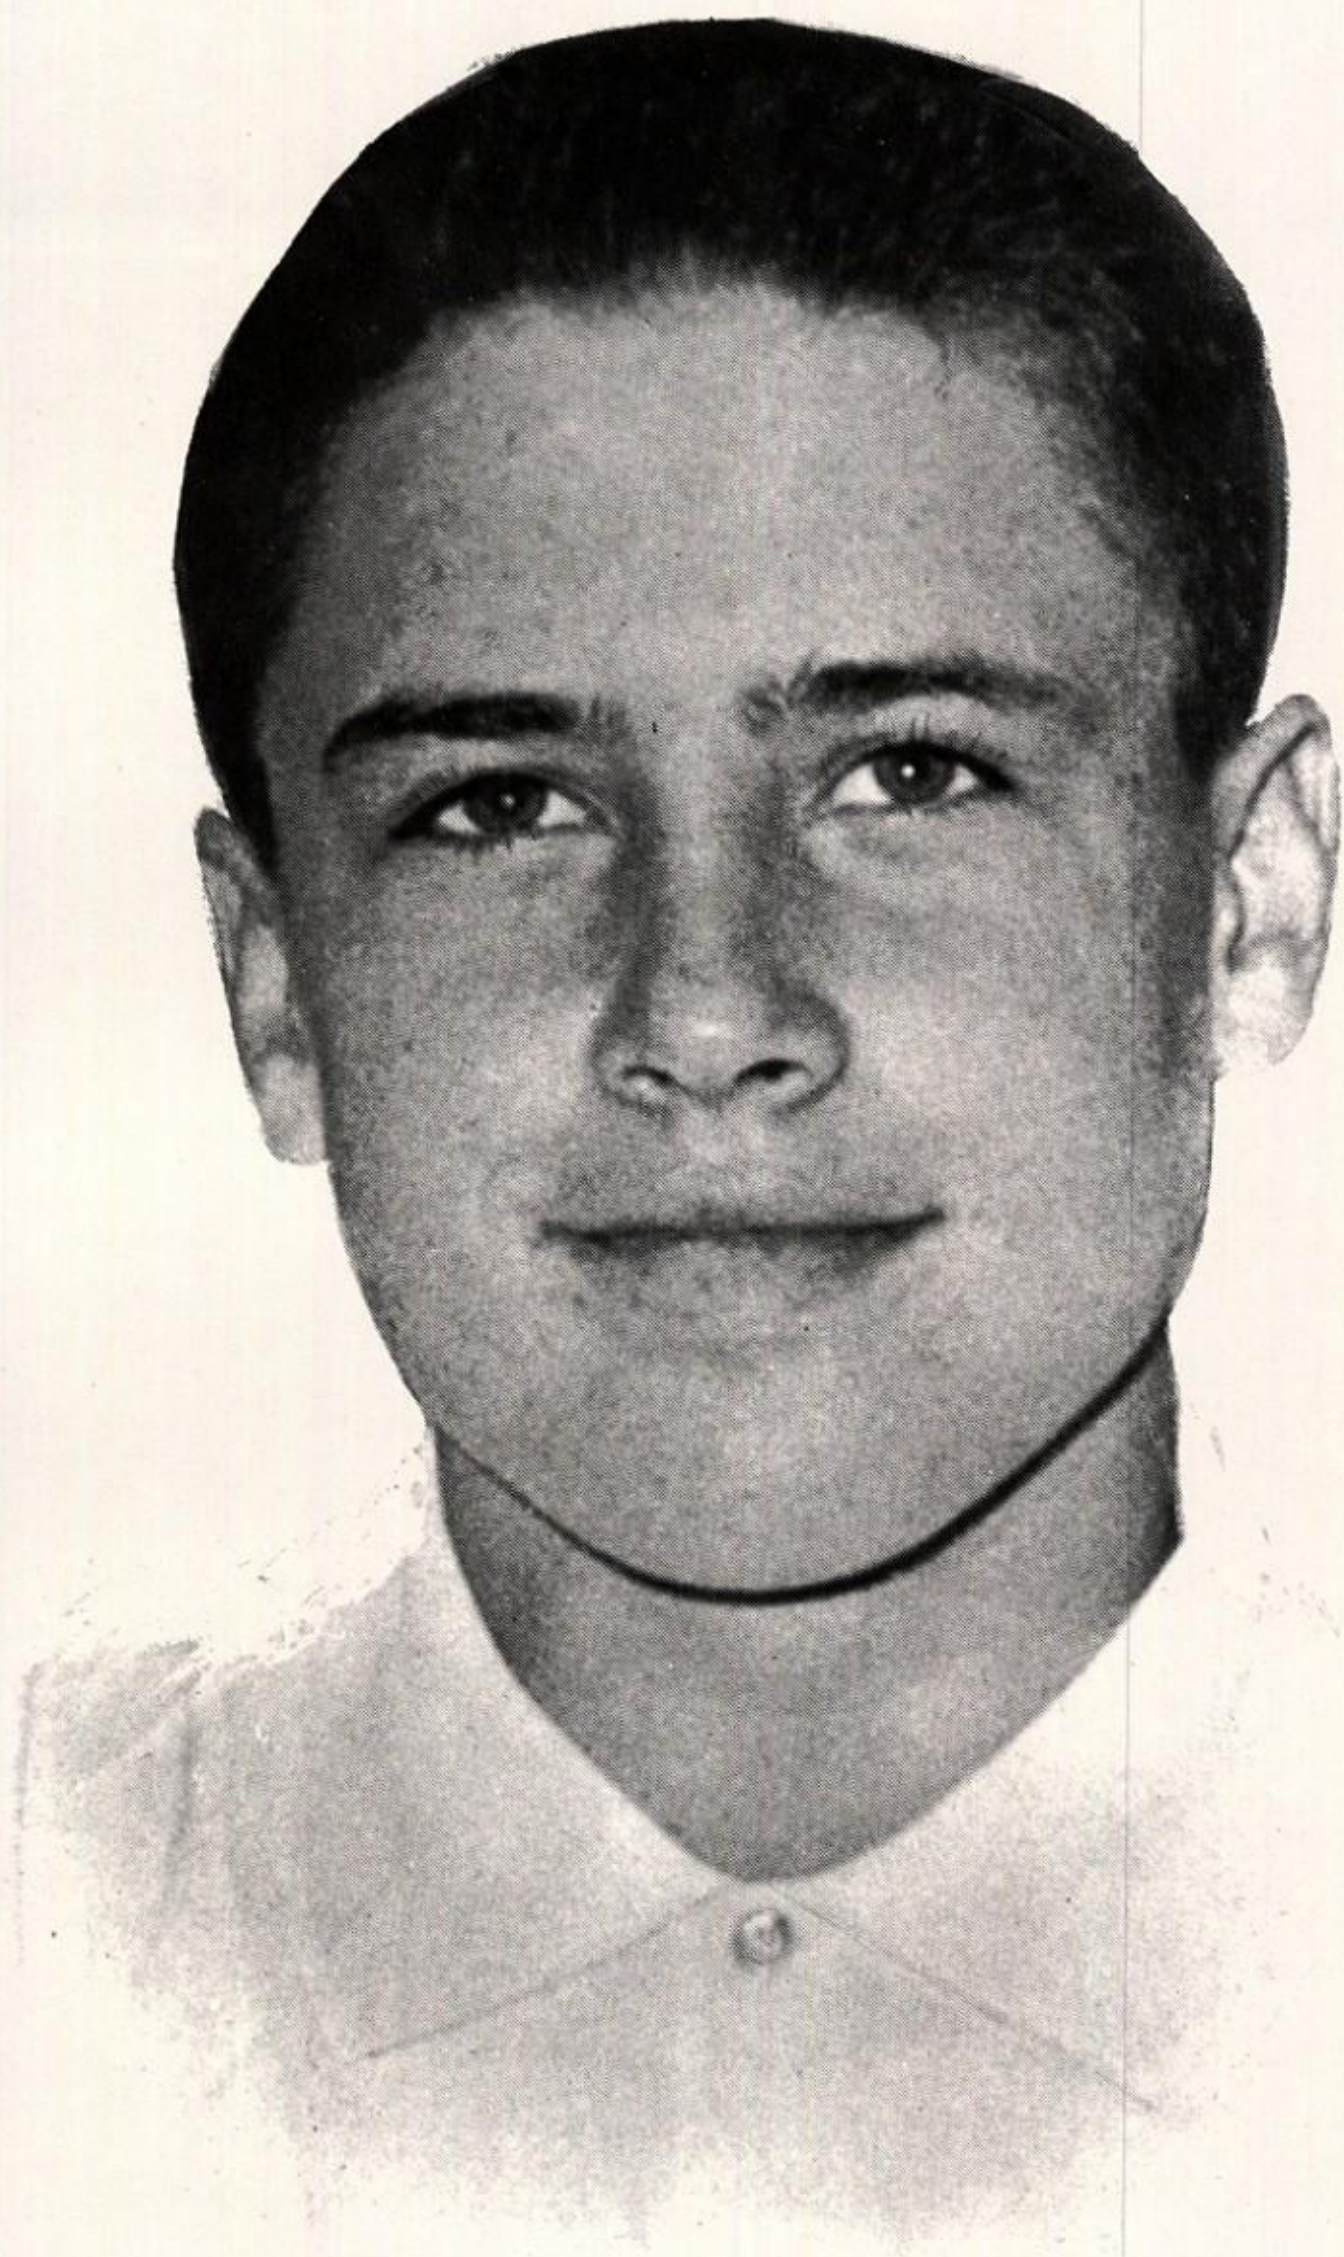

The scent of lilacs in the wet Spring air,
A far-off bell that rang across the sky,
A voice from somewhere singing in the dawn,
The shadow of a deer that glided by.

These perfect moments that elude our grasp
Intensify our wish to strongly clasp
Them to our hearts. And yet it can't be so.
The rarer things are somehow meant to go.

And though our hearts are filled with tears and grief
Because this loved and brilliant life was brief,
We had the joy of knowing for a while
The purity and goodness of his smile.

ACTIVITIES

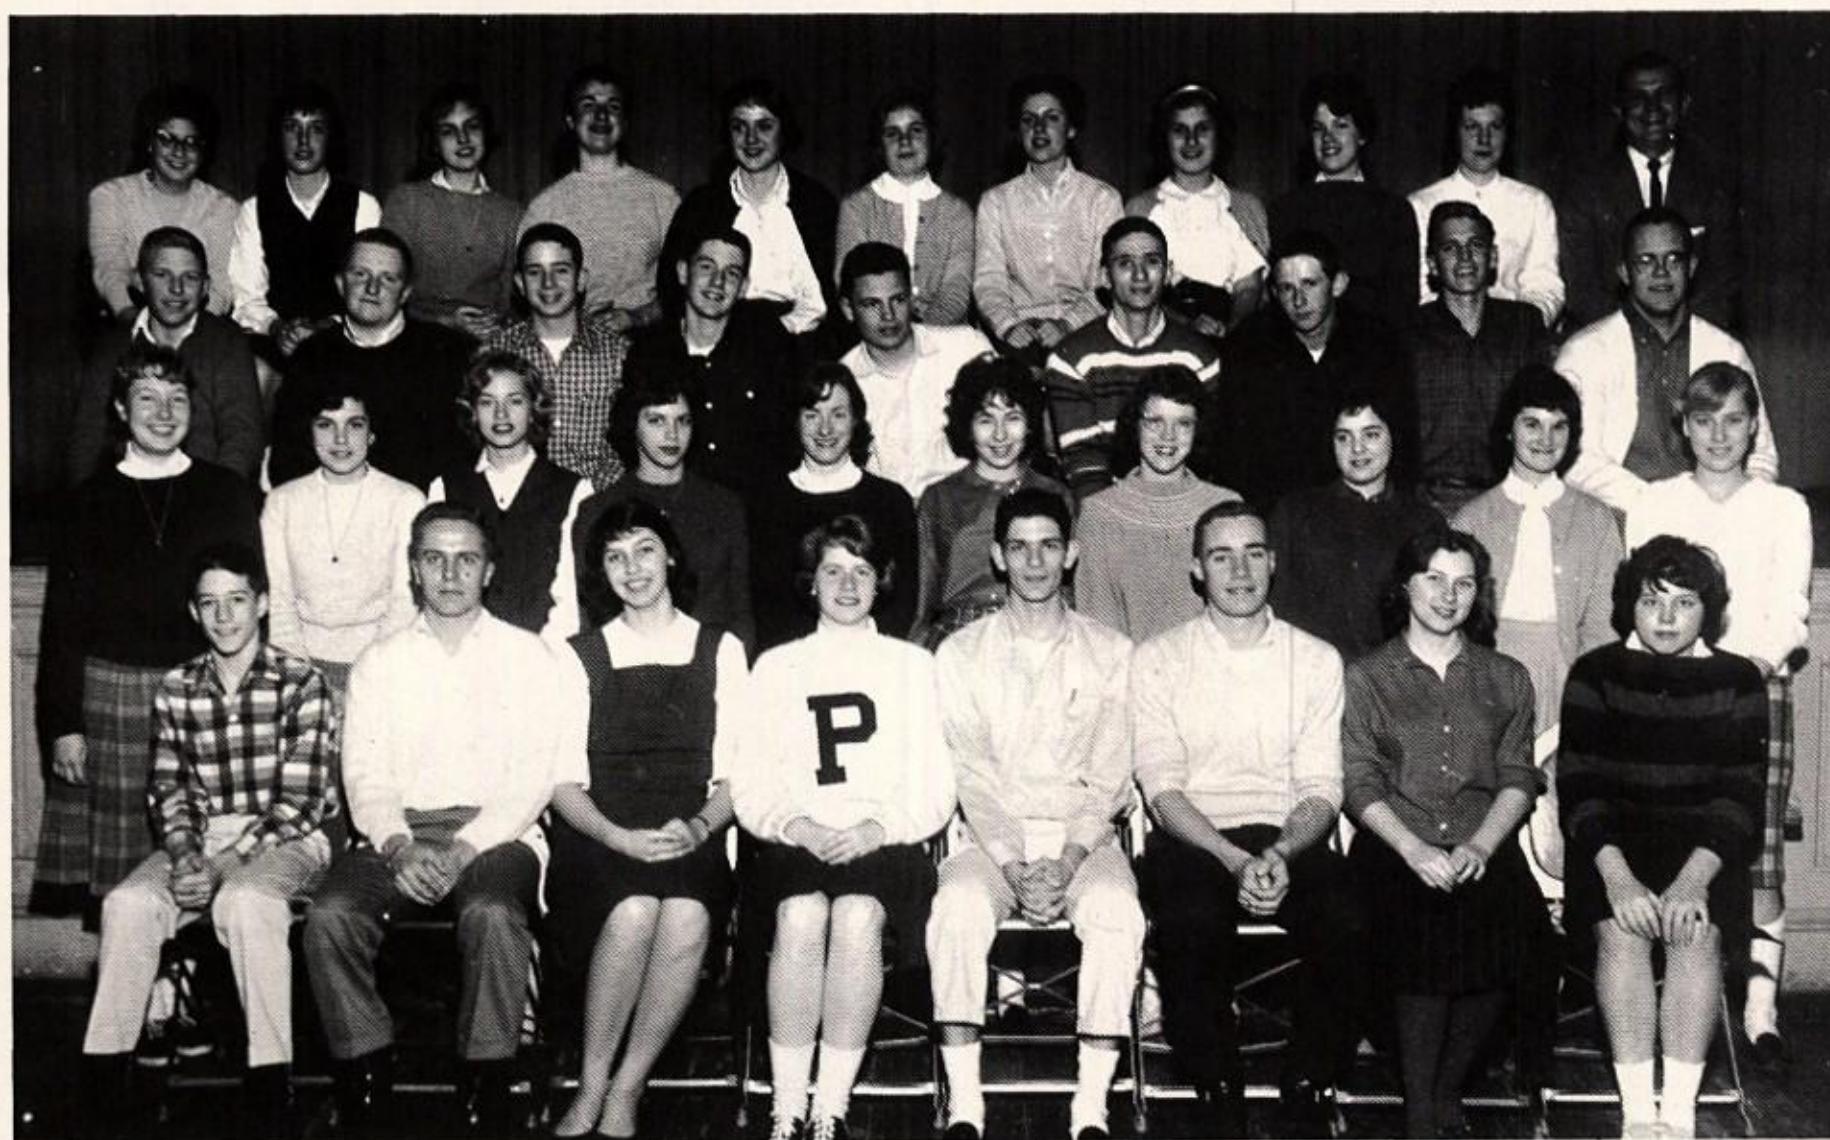

Really Haacks Minutes out of Homeroom!

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government is the legislative body and the unofficial debating society of the school. Its standard duties are approving constitutions of new clubs, running school elections, arguing, sponsoring the informal Rye Pep Rally dance, buying yearbook ads (yea!), and organizing Students' Day. A great part of this year's discussion time was spent on the shaky school political party system. The question of whether or not to keep the parties was turned over to the student body in a referendum. Under the direction of Vice-President Charlie Cooper, the students again took over teacher and administrative positions and ran the school for one glorious day. In addition to being fun, it was interesting to discover that the teachers work almost as hard as we do!

The Fry Rye Rock was more successful this year and consequently made more money than usual. News of these riches soon got around. The Student Government gave some money to Mr. Bitter to build a trailer to haul the loudspeaker equipment to and from games and other noisy school functions. The monitors also got wind of superfluity and bought 500 new monitor badges.

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

The General Organization is the high school bank with checking accounts for each of the school clubs. It gets its funds from selling G.O. tickets, running concessions at athletic events, and collecting general admission fees from many activities.

G.O. ticket-holders are entitled to special discounts on certain G.O. sponsored school events. They get free entrance to games and free school newspapers. The traditional moth-eaten G.O. card was replaced this year with a stylish book of tickets with many easy-to-tear-out, numbered, multi-colored pages.

This year the G.O. sponsored a school-wide cancer drive in memory of Miss Pierce and Blair Jaffee. Under the presidency of Fred Lowther, who kept asking, "Any complaints?" the G.O. approved budgets galore, sponsored two dances (one informal and one semi-formal), and two plays Anastasia and The Rainmaker.

Football at Pleasantville is a tradition, almost a way of life. The gridders of the Class of '61 will now have only memories of their years under Coaches Kurachek and Beattie. The memories will include Pete Kurachek's touchdown pass to Pete Jenkins; the play that George Phillips and Gill Agee stopped for no gain; the day that centers Jim Devine and Jay Groves lost no downs on bad snaps; and that crucial first down by Ronnie Schwalbe.

How does one define a successful football season? Is its success in direct proportion to the number of games won? Although this year's Varsity team had only one win, it can not be concluded that the 1960 campaign was any less rewarding to its members.

Of course, victory is the main objective of any athletic team, and the memory of the many contests lost by this year's squad return to haunt us, the players. Each Saturday when we took the field our thoughts were geared to victory.

After suffering our two most decisive defeats at the hands of Rye and Pelham on consecutive Saturdays, we came face to face with Goliath, in the form of Harrison High School. To the surprise of many (except the members of the squad) the Panthers beat the Huskies for all but three minutes of the game.

Much was learned by this year's squad, which included only one veteran. A football player learns to grind and not give up, though the odds may be against him.

The 1960-61 Panthers, despite an unimpressive record, remain proud of their achievements on and off the court. Although the team lacked experience, it succeeded in overcoming this and other obstacles as the season progressed. The players learned those lessons recognized only through experience that will prove invaluable to them in the future.

Only a member of this team could know the potential ability and spirit of our Panther unit. Obviously improved by each game, this year's squad will endow the 1962 club with the benefits of its hard work.

Each member of the squad realizes his debt to Coach McLaughlin, the fourth cage mentor in as many seasons, who was respected and admired by all. He has begun working to build a new Pleasantville basketball dynasty.

We of the 1960-61 Panther Team are proud to have represented PHS on the court. Though the season is ended, the spirit of this team will be felt in future years, by members of future squads who will remember that this team laid the foundation for their victories.

SILENCE

I have known the silence of the stars and of the sea,
 And the silence of the city when it pauses.
And the silence of a man and a maid,
 And the silence for which music alone finds a word.
And the silence of the woods before the winds of spring begin,
 And the silence of the sick
When their eyes roam about the room.
 And I ask: For the depths
Of what use is language?
 A beast of the field moans a few times
When death takes its young.
 And we are voiceless in the presence of realities—
We cannot speak . . .
 If we who are in life cannot speak of profound experiences,
Why do you marvel that the dead
 Do not tell you of Death?
Their silence shall be interpreted
 As we approach them.
